

The Concordium

The Concordium was a group of 14 Holy Knights, directly serving the King. 7 of these Holy Knights betrayed the others, framing them for high treason against the kingdom, and sentencing them for a millenium. With this sentencing, the betrayed Holy Knights, now called The Seven Deadly Sins, were further punished with The Capital Curses, from The Blood of The Dead Gods. The other half of The Concordium called themselves The Seven Heavenly Virtues, and continued selling their false tale of the Sins' betrayal.
